POLICY: SG47C

The CALIFORNIA WELCOME CENTER with arrow sign (SG47C) may be placed at a freeway ramp terminal, conventional highway or local road to provide direction to a California Welcome Center that has been established under the authority of the California Office of Tourism. Follow-up signing, if necessary, shall be placed by local jurisdictions before signs are placed on the State highway.

The welcome center will be charged directly for the initial and ongoing cost and fees related to production, maintenance and permitting of these sign.
